Andy & Jo's Hog Roast & BBQ
Sunday 31st May 2009.

The purpose built hog roasting spit arrives

Chef Mike getting the hog ready.

Meanwhile the tenants of Oak Farm carry on oblivious to what is coming.

The BBQ is fired up by 'The World's fastest Eric' (Left), while Nick has a chat (right).

Dave brought his wonderful veteran FN four & sidecar with him.

Colin, Ellie & Bryony

Ginger in the sunshine.

Young Archie curious about the world of classic transport.

Norman had brought along his Swedish Crescent moped 'stop me & buy one' ice cream wagon, complete a generous supply of Parravani's delicious ginger flavoured ice cream.

Andy wheeled a few of his own machines out into the sunshine, including this fine example of a Harley Davidson with genuine Harley Davidson chair mounted on the left. This machine was originally made for the South African market, which explains the left hand sidecar.

Andy's Raleigh three wheeled van. Definitely a hit with Archie!

Terry with his totally original low mileage Indian four.

Simon wondering how well he could cope with London traffic on Andy's WW2 German Kettenrad.

Glorious weather & everything in full swing!

Jo & company

Andy showing off one of his more unusual machines, an air cooled Austin seven engined BSA.

Andy's Kettenrad was put to good use giving joy rides with Nick at the helm. A lot of fun was had by all.

Among the vehicles that guests brought was Brian's magnificent Jaguar, a 380 special.

One of the Oak Farm tenants shows what he thinks of it all. Now I wonder if peacocks fit into woks!

Debbie (L) & Brenna (R) tucking in

You may remember Andy's girlfriend from his Manheim trip last year, well it turns out Jo found out & invited Miss Piggy as the guest of honour.

And very tasty she was too, with the added bonus of being fully EEC approved!

Until we meet again
